

DOM

The Document Object Model - DOM - is tree structure consisting of nodes representing the contents of an (X)HTML or XML document.

It is used to create the visual representation of the document, typically by a web browser.

Each node is an object that can be accessed separately and manipulated to change the visual representation.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/juci/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/juci/glossary/d/dom>

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

