

EDNS

Extension mechanisms for DNS - EDNS - is a specification for expanding the size of several parameters of the Domain Name System DNS protocol.

EDNS adds information to DNS messages in the form of pseudo-resource-records included in the “additional data” section of a DNS message in both requests and responses.

EDNS is needed for DNS Security Extensions.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/e/edns>

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

