

RSS (Memory)

RSS - Resident Set Size indicates how much memory is allocated to a process and is in RAM.

It includes all stack and heap memory, and shared libraries also in memory, but not memory that is swapped out.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/r/rss\_memory

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

