

Waterfall Diagram

A browser waterfall diagram shows the series of actions performed by the client and server when a specific URL is accessed.

The information is shown as a cascading list of items showing how the browser loads and renders the URL. Every row in the diagram represents a single request made by the client. The timing of the events relating to the request is indicated by the length of the bars on the row.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/w/waterfall>

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

